

Take the spirit of '60s folk, add in the vocal complexity of Crosby, Stills & Nash, shake well and you have Gathering Time - The head-turning folk-rock harmony trio whom WFUV's John Platt considers, "among the top performers in the New York Metropolitan area," and which was voted "Best of Long Island" in the Long Island Press.

With their seamless vocal blend, inspired guitar and precise percussion, Glen, Hillary and Stuart reveal deep roots in '60s folk-rock and traditional folk. Their stage chemistry makes it clear that they take the music (if not themselves) very seriously, with an infectious energy that wins fans who never considered themselves folk music listeners.

The group formed in the summer of 2006 and first hit the folk chart in December 2007 with a remake of Peter Yarrow's "Light One Candle." Their first album, "Songs of Hope and Freedom," released in November 2008, is a highly praised testament to the beauty and resilience of the human spirit. "Red Apples & Gold," their second full CD, reflects upon family, tradition, history and personal discovery.

In addition to original concerts, the group presents themed '60's and '70's tribute shows from folk to rock!

"Their voices rose in a blend that seemed unearthly. In a heartbeat, the terrestrial became celestial."

"Gathering Time is right up there with the ones we all know - they are the next generation of great trios with meaningful music performed in awesome harmony."

- Bill Haln (WFUD 89.1 FM, NJ)

"Gathering Time has perfected two separate but related art forms: three part harmony and having a ball on stage! When they harmonize, some sort of fundamental, cosmic concordance occurs that makes you very happy that you have ears."

- Bob McKillop (MaineFolkMusic.com)
